SCHEDULE OF NOTES

1. A registered easement or easement in gross may be amended by registering an instrument of amendment of the easement or easement in gross. However, the instrument of amendment must not change a party to the easement or easement in gross. (Internal use only: The AE code is used for Amendment of Easement created by dealing and the PV code is used for an amendment of easement created by plan).
2. This form is to be lodged as an original only and must be typed or completed in ink or biro. The imprint of the Commissioner of Taxes must be shown. Alterations to information entered on the form should be crossed out (nor erased or obliterated by painting over) and initialled by the parties.
3. If there is insufficient space in any panel use the space above or an annexure sheet (Form 95).
4. A description of the easement must be given together with the LTO registration number if applicable
5. Volume and Folio references must be given together with complete parcel description. If the certificate as to title has been issued it must be produced.
6. Insert the owner of the land burdened by the easement. Address if not required.
7. Volume and Folio references must be given together with complete parcel description. If the certificate as to title has been issued it must be produced.
8. Insert the owner or person receiving the benefit of the easement. Address if not required.
9. Insert details of amendment.
10. Persons who may witness this document are a Commissioner for Oaths, a member of the Legislative Assembly, a legal practitioner within the meaning of the Legal Practitioners Act, a person holding office under the Supreme Court Act, the Justices Act, the Local Court Act or the Registration Act, a member of the Police Force, a person licensed as a conveyancing agent or real estate agent under the Agents Licensing Act, a Notary Public and any other person approved by the Registrar-General.

A witness to an instrument executed by an individual must first:

- take reasonable steps to ensure that the individual is the person entitled to sign the instrument;
- have the individual execute the document in the presence of the witness;
- not be a party to the instrument; and
- if witnessing more than one signature, clearly state that he/she has witnessed more than one signature. (ie I have witnessed the two signatures appearing above).

After signing, witnesses must legibly write, type or stamp their names and contact address or telephone number below their signature.

For a corporation, an instrument must be executed in a way permitted by law or sealed with the corporation's seal in accordance with the Law of Property Act, Section 48.

For witnessing of instruments executed outside the Northern Territory refer to Schedule 1 of the Land Title Act and the Registrar-General's Direction.

11. The instrument of easement or easement in gross must include the consents of all registered mortgagees of the lot burdened by the easement or easement in gross.

PRIVACY STATEMENT – LAND REGISTER FORMS

The Registrar-General's Office is authorised by the Land Title Act to collect the information on this form for the establishment and maintenance of the Land Register, which is made available for search by any person, anywhere, including through the Internet, upon payment of a fee. The information is regularly provided to other NT Government agencies, the Australian Valuation Office, local governments, the Australian Bureau of Statistics, the Australian Taxation Office or other Commonwealth Agencies as required or authorised by law, and some private sector organisations for conveyancing, local government, valuation, statistical, administrative and other purposes. The Department of Planning and Infrastructure also uses the information to prepare and sell or licence property sales reports to commercial organisations concerned with the development, sale or marketing of property.

Failure to provide the information in full or in part may prevent your application or transaction being completed.

Your personal information provided on this form can be subsequently accessed by you on request. If you have any queries please contact the Deputy Registrar-General on 8999 5318.
